and will feature blintzes and kugel!

(What else could you want?! –OK, a little salad, a piece of cake, some coffee, and even a glass of wine!)

Reservations for the dinner are essential:
call the Beth-El office at 817-332-7141.

“Vicky Cristina Barcelona” is a Woody Allen comedy, and relevant to the festival which recalls the revelation at Sinai and thus, in particular, the Ten Commandments. It is rated PG13, but come prepared to think about life, adultery, attempted murder, and coveting! After the film, for which Penelope Cruz recently won the Best Supporting Actress Oscar, stay for a brief discussion!

Need something for the children? Pizza and film for only $3 each. (please RSVP.)
